

We are delighted to offer this most impressive THREE bedroom semi-detached house proudly positioned within a prime and sought-after location in Rayleigh. This spacious home has the added benefit of a corner plot rear garden measuring and has been much improved and well cared for by its current owner. Having been extended in the past the accommodation is vast offering versatility. There is driveway parking to the front and a garage at the rear. Situated within an established road amongst other character homes and just a brief walk from local shops, supermarkets and Rayleigh high street & railway station. Internally you enter the bright and vibrant entrance hall giving you direct access to the lounge with a character fireplace and bay window. Further on to the rear of the property you have the gally style kitchen, separate dining room and conservatory overlooking the mature rear garden. To complete the downstairs, you have under stairs storage and a W/C. Upstairs hosts THREE Bedrooms, two doubles with fitted wardrobes and a single. The four piece family bathroom is stunning and completes the upstairs. NO ONWARD CHAIN!
