Mountview Crescent, £550,000

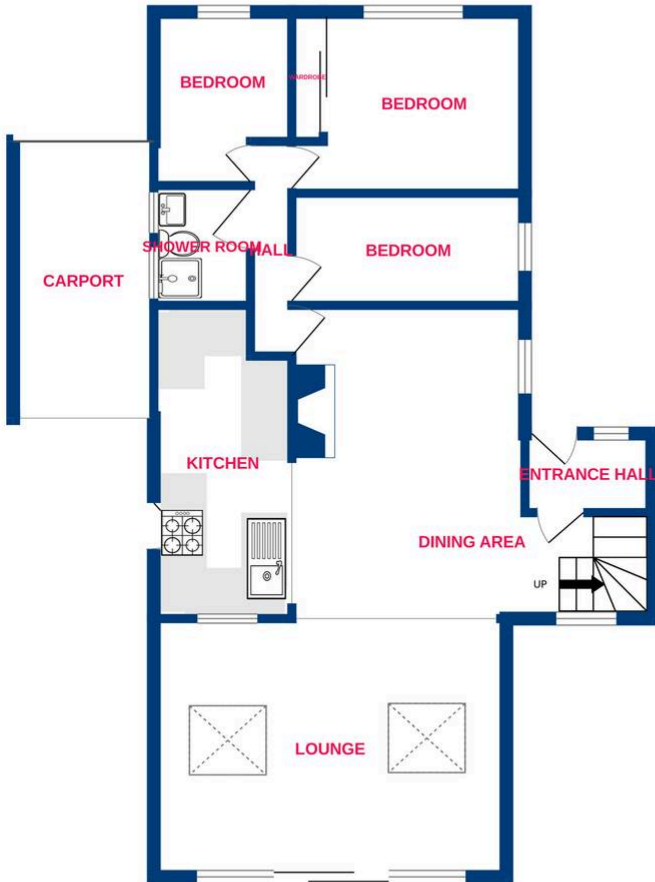

Temme English are thrilled to present to the market this top class FOUR bedroom detached chalet style bungalow located within a wonderful spot in the very heart of St Lawrence Bay backing on to open farmland benefitting from the fresh breeze coming via the River Blackwater. The property has been impressively renovated over time both inside and out. This goes as far as new bathrooms, kitchen and an extension to the rear of the property. The accommodation commences with a private entrance hall which opens onto the open plan kitchen/dining area ideal for entertaining. To the front of the property you have two double bedrooms, one with fitted wardrobes and an ultra-modern shower room. As mentioned to the rear of the property the current vendors have added an extension flowing beautifully from the entertaining area with skylights and sliding patio doors overlooking the stunning rear garden and countryside views. Upstairs plays host to the main bedroom dictating the majority of the top floor 30ft in length with Velux windows, fitted wardrobes and a luxurious en suite. The west facing garden is marvellous and a gateway for all types of wildlife and birds. Call us today to arrange your viewing!
