

Swan Lane £800,000

Temme English are delighted to market this splendid FOUR bedroom detached home. Most attractive in its appearance the property is presented to an extremely high standard with lavish interior fittings and unique character features. The location is ideal for Wickford Railway Station and is situated with a generous frontage behind electric security gates. The layout is excellent, comprising FOUR reception rooms, luxurious open plan kitchen, ground floor shower room/utility, generous sized bedrooms and a four piece family bathroom. The outstanding accommodation commences with a grand entrance hall. To the front there is a beautiful sitting room with large bay window overlooking the gated and well cared for front garden and a media tv wall & featured fireplace. Also to the front of the property is a separate study/office again with a bay window overlooking the driveway. The dining area is open plan to the snug style extension and also has double doors leading into the open plan kitchen/diner. The gorgeous bespoke kitchen is well designed with many features including breakfast bar, three built in ovens, instant hot boiling tap and ample work surface area. To complete the downstairs, you have the shower room & utility room which gives you direct access to the rear garden. The first floor accommodation benefits from a split level galleried landing and well-proportioned bedrooms. All the bedrooms have been delightfully decorated to a high standard with most accommodating built in wardrobes. There is also a modern family bathroom to complete the upstairs. The exterior as previously mentioned has a large well-maintained frontage with electric security gates and long driveway leading to the integral garage. The rear garden is well designed and mostly secluded with an attractive patio area covering the far left side with the remainder being majority laid to lawn with pretty borders.
